

Volunteer Role	SUMMER INTERPRETATION VOLUNTEER
Purpose of role	For the summer of 2019, we are looking for a group of 4-5 individual volunteers to work alongside our interpretation team members. Areas include: domestic and site interpretation, historic gardens and bakehouse
Tasks you might be carrying out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To work alongside a member of the interpretation team for a set period of time in summer 2019. To learn about one specific interpretation area at the Museum and learn in general about Museum interpretation
This role would be a great fit if you:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Are a team player with a 'can do' attitude Are professional, able to use initiative and work unsupervised Enjoy learning new skills with a keen interest in History and heritage Are willing to get involved to inspire and delight our visitors Are happy to wear historic clothing
Benefits:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> contribution to travel expenses, 20% discount in cafe and shop, free entry to Museum, experience of working in a museum setting on the job training and development professional reference if required
Time Commitment:	We are looking for volunteers who are able to commit to 3-4 days a week over a 4-6 week period. Specific time periods can be flexible and agreed with each individual
Training	We have a vast array of training to support our volunteers in offering an exceptional visitor experience. You will be welcome to join some of our training sessions, on topics such as an Introduction to the Museum, Introduction to the Museum Collection, Bayleaf Farmstead session and more, but these limited number of roles will also receive 1:1 training from the Interpreter you are working alongside.
To apply:	Please send an expression of interest letter with your contact details and answers to the following questions to: tracyrogers@wealddown.co.uk <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Why would you like to volunteer at the Weald & Downland Museum What would you like to get out of the summer of volunteering with the interpretation team What skills can you bring to the Interpretation Team?