

Winkhurst Hall (47): Stuart Ovenden, The Orchard Cook

Stuart Ovenden, author of The Orchard Cook, will be on hand to answer all your foraging questions and suggest some delicious recipe ideas from tree to table.

Cowfold Barn (49): Chichester Beekeeper Association

Meet the Chichester Beekeepers to hear all about their work with bees and taste their delicious honey.

Saturday 12 October

Hambrook Barn (59): South Downs Folk Singers

Performances are at 12.00 and 2pm.

Enjoy a unique folk-inspired performance all about hedgerows & harvest. Not to be missed!

Sunday 13 October

Walderton (9): Natural Dyes and Textiles

Andrew & Jo Shorter will be showcasing their display of natural dyes and textiles, as well as contemporary creations using traditional techniques.

Don't Miss!

Longport (58): Heritage Craft Exhibition

Don't miss the chance to visit our brand new exhibition showcasing heritage crafts 'at risk'!

South Wonston Church (11): Harvest Display

Admire the harvest display made by the Museum Gardens Team.

Hedgerows & Harvest

Saturday 12 & Sunday 13 October

10.00am-4pm

What's on programme

Outside Toll House (4): Seed Sistas

Meet Bramble and Rose, the larger-than-life hedgerow characters to taste their teas and connect with the herbal world. Join them too for:

- A guided Twitten walk, to hear about the delights and benefits of hedgerow fruits. Meet outside Toll House. Time: 11.30am-12.30pm
- A herbal talk: Hedgerow Superfoods & Herbal Medicine Underfoot. Time: 2pm. Location: In Crawley Hall (7).

Brick Drying Shed (20): Sussex Wildlife Trust

Discover the important work being done by the Sussex Wildlife Trust and find out how you can support them.

Brick Drying Shed (20): Transition Town Chichester

Find out how Transition Town Chichester works to protect the environment and have a go at their harvest quiz.

Activity Room (18): Autumnal printing

Join botanical artist Julia White to create your own beautiful hedgerow print.

Activity Room (18): Plantlife

Learn all about Plantlife's mission to secure and sustain a world rich in wildlife and fungi.

Activity Room (18): Brent Lodge Wildlife Hospital (10-2pm)

Discover how you can help look after the local hedgehog population from your own garden and discover the wonderful work being done by this local charity.

Make and take your own handprinted hedgehog

Lavant Building (17): Tony the Flowerman

Join Tony the Flowerman to make your own autumn inspired dried flower creations to take home.

Carpenters Shop (15): Traditional chair making and bodging

Discover the traditional craft of chair making and learn about the highly skilled craft of bodging from Mervyn Mewis.

Trades & Craft Demonstration Area (below 12): Stave Basketmaking

Steve Scott will be demonstrating making traditional wooden Orchard Baskets.

Horsham Shop, Left (8): Corn dollies

Michael Gates, member of the Guild of Straw Craftsmen will be exhibiting his straw work. Make and take a simple corn dolly of your own between 10.30-12.30 and 1.30-4.00.

Horsham Shop, Right (8): Spinning a yarn

Expert spinner, Kathryn Young will be spinning a range of natural and man-made fibres.

Lower Titchfield Market Hall (6): Songs and Tales of Hedgerows & Harvest

Gather at the Market Hall to be regaled with seasonal songs and stories by Gail Duff & Bing Lyle.

Performances at 11am and 1pm.

Walderton (9): Museum Gardens Team

Meet the Museum gardens team to find out about the seasonal produce grown in the Historic Gardens and admire their harvest display.

Sole Street (33): Textile printing with wood blocks

Join Will and Nicki Dyke for a demonstration of textile printing using wood blocks from the 1600s to today.

Tindalls Garden (35): Hedgelaying in the Hop Garden

Watch our Museum Rural Life Interpreter hedgelaying in the hop garden over the weekend.

Tindalls (35): The Natural Larder in Georgian England

Join food historian Marc Meltonville who will be demonstrating the types of food that were foraged from the hedgerows in Georgian England.

Bayleaf (48): Preparing for Winter

Join the Tudor Group, who will be in residence in Bayleaf Farmstead, as they prepare for the winter period. They'll be demonstrating harvest techniques of the 16th Century including threshing and flax processing.

Winkhurst Kitchen (47): Preserving for Winter

Join the Winkhurst Interpretation Team who will be demonstrating how food would have been preserved for the winter in the mid 16th century.

