LIVING MUSEUM

A Unique Place to Celebrate your Special Day

WEDDINGS

at Weald & Downland Living Museum

The Weald & Downland Living Museum – a hidden gem in the South East, quintessentially British in a picture perfect setting.

This 40 acre fully licenced site is the perfect setting in which to celebrate your love. Here, you and your guests can bask in an atmosphere of quiet tranquility as you enjoy the property's picturesque buildings and tranquil historic gardens.

The story of community life in the South Downs goes back more than 1,000 years, your next chapters are still waiting to be written. Our experienced and friendly events team would be delighted to help you design an event for the ages.

Choosing the Weald & Downland Living Museum as your wedding venue will give you the perfect rural backdrop, unlike anywhere else. With limited dates available each year, you will also be assured a day that few couples get to share.

CRAWLEY HALL

Crawley Hall is situated in the heart of the venue's medieval market square. Surrounded by historic buildings and cobbled paths, this charming timber-framed barn is an ideal choice for more intimate celebrations.

Crawley Hall is licensed for civil ceremonies, and it can host parties of up to 50 guests. Crawley Hall is the perfect setting for an intimate ceremony with your nearest and dearest.

After the Civil Ceremony, enjoy the museum grounds and facilities with your guests, followed by a rustic picnic buffet next to the tranquil millpond. This venue allows for a relaxed smaller wedding for the day before proceeding onto a evening reception venue in the local area.

FACILITIES INCLUDE

- Use of Crawley Hall 9am-5pm
- Discounted chair hire
- Access to the entire museum on the day for you and your guests
- Reserved parking
- 1 year joint adult membership activated the day after your wedding to celebrate your 1 year anniversary
- A dedicated Wedding Coordinator as your point of contact
